Re: Relations of war

To Whom It May Concern:

Effective immediately the SanctFFA tag and all future alternate forms thereof will be killed on the Free For All server of Earth Empires by the Insane Multi Posse. This declaration of hostile intentions and actions contains no expiration date. This declaration will supersede any formal pacts or relations signed by the Insane Multi Posse.

In addition, the player that uses the handle "Thomas" will be terminated in the same manner regardless of home alliance. This also has no expiration date.

If you have any questions please contact a leader from the Insane Multi Posse.

Always,

Primeval
Insane Multi Posse
